

Sheila Young-Golden

With over eight years of experience in the insurance industry, Ms. Young-Golden is currently the lead investigator assigned to handling complaints involving Medicare misconduct for the New Jersey Department of Banking & Insurance. Ms. Young-Golden has an extensive background in investigative procedures. Prior to joining the New Jersey Department of Banking & Insurance, Ms. Young-Golden was a licensed insurance producer for life and health, whose responsibilities included underwriting, compliance, licensing and continuing education.